

1 AN ORDINANCE indicating the willingness of King County
2 to cooperate with the U.S. Department of Housing and 3 Urban Development in conducting Operation Breakthrough
4 and providing for certain services, aids and variances
5 to accomplish this cooperation; and Amending Ordinance
6 No. 00302.

7 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE KING COUNTY COUNCIL:

8 SECTION 1: NEW SECTION 10: King County Ordinance
9 No. 00302 is amended to read as follows:

10 The King County Breakthrough Ordinance contemplates
11 that HUD Consultant Planners will in the concept stages meet with 12 community groups and King County staff or officials providing 13 information, seeking data that will assist in planning and 14 relating community attitudes to planning, and for the purpose of 15 discussing the proposed project.

16 SECTION 2: NEW SECTION 11: King County Ordinance
17 No. 00302 is amended to read as follows:

18 The HUD Consultant Planners will ((come-up-with))
19 develop and present a proposed plan or concept of land use
20 pursuant to which HUD will develop the land, including a street
21 layout, architectural guidelines, proposed changes or variations
22 in County codes, and unit concept plans for the various types and 23 sizes of units which HUD will build on the land, and the County
24 Council will have a period of fifteen (15) days after receipt of 25 this plan to approve or disapprove it. If the Council fails to 26 approve or disapprove the plan within the fifteen (15) day
27 period, approval will not be required. If the Council disapproves
28 the plan and the differences cannot be resolved by mutual
29 agreement, the Council and HUD will be released from any further 30 commitments, and the development will be discontinued at this 31 site..
